

Eagle's Club

Your wedding is just one day in your life, but the memories will be forever. The Eagle's Club in Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin provides a comfortable facility and excellent food that set the foundation for wonderful memories for you and your guests.

Conveniently located off of Highway 124/53 between Eau Claire and Chippewa Falls, The Eagle's Club features two recently remodeled halls, a restaurant, and bar. It's an ideal location for any event, including weddings, anniversary parties, birthday parties, meetings, and more.

Plus, the service is unparalleled. Your happiness and complete satisfaction is their top priority.

A Remodeled Facility

Wedding receptions at The Eagles Club are effortless. The staff do everything they can to make sure that your vision becomes a reality. The Club provides affordable options for weddings of all sizes. They work with each couple's budget to provide an elegant reception at a reasonable price.

Wedding receptions at The Eagles Club take place in one of two recently-renovated halls which provide options for small to large events. The Liberty Hall seats 350 people and the Justice Hall seats 150 people. For larger events, both rooms can be opened up to accommodate up to 500 people. The facility has also accommodated wedding ceremonies in the past.

Both halls have round tables that each seat eight, full-service bars tended throughout the evening, and a large, permanent dance floor. The room is surrounded by lit trees and a variety of lighting settings to allow you to set the mood throughout the reception. A variety of table centerpieces are available at no charge, including glass vases and bowls, mirrored plates, and more. Set-up and tear-down are included with the room rental. Plus, several hotels are located in the area for wedding guests.

Memorable Meals

Food is provided by Piff's Catering, a longstanding catering company in the area that specializes in homemade, tastes-like-Grandma's cooking. They strive to "wow" you and your guests with fabulous food.

“We do everything possible to make the couple happy,” says Mike Rubenzer, owner of Piff’s Catering. “That’s our number one priority. Always has been, always will be.”

During the planning process, Rubenzer sits down with each couple to discuss the options available and create a custom menu tailored for the couple. A number of options are available for the main dish, side dish, and salad. From broasted chicken to tenderloin beef tips to honey ham, all options are sure to please your guests. In addition, Piff’s Catering welcomes special requests. Both plated and buffet dinners are available.

Piff’s Catering stands for quality ingredients and made-from-scratch preparation, says Rubenzer: “Excellent food begins with excellent ingredients.” Easy doesn’t cut it either. For example, all potatoes are peeled by hand and all fresh fruit is cut by hand. These steps, while time consuming, result in fresh, delicious dishes.

Even the wedding vendors have commented on the excellent food, says Rubenzer. For example, at a recent wedding a photographer raved that the food was the best he had ever had at a wedding – and he has been to his share of weddings over the years. Unsolicited feedback like this speaks volumes about the Club and the food.

Piff’s wraps the leftover food for the couple to pick up the next morning. This food can then either be served at the gift-opening or frozen to be eaten at a later date. With this, the couple can continue to enjoy their wedding reception food for weeks or months after to the event.

Wedding receptions at The Eagles Club are memorable for your guests and easy to plan for the couple. In everything they do, The Club will put you first. Says Rubenzer, “We are your servants for the day. It’s your day. We’re here to make sure that everything goes smoothly and as planned.”
