

SLUMBER PARTIES

by Jasmine

There's a lot of pressure that comes with the duty of planning the bachelorette party. You want the guests to have a blast and the bride to have a night she'll never forget.

Ease the pressure by turning the Bachelorette Party into a Slumber Party. No, not the kind that involves sleeping bags, popcorn, and movies. Slumber Parties, an in-home sensual products company, are designed for adults and they are much more fun! Jasmine Dutton, your local Slumber Parties distributor and intimacy expert, turns the average party into an experience that the bride and guests will never forget!

As a proud distributor for Slumber Parties, Jasmine provides sensual products and education to promote intimacy and communication in the bedroom. Slumber Parties offers products for everyone, from the mild to the wild! Rest assured, party guests will not walk into a room filled with scary sex toys, Jasmine's parties are very tasteful and designed to educate and empower women. From lotions and massage oils to bedroom products, the presentation includes a mix of fun tips and techniques and product explanations so that you can take control of your sexuality and feel confident in the bedroom.

"The information we share and the products we offer encourage open lines of communication in the bedroom. If you can communicate well in the bedroom, you can talk about anything," says Jasmine. "We empower women which results in improved relationships and amazing marriages. I love that I'm given the opportunity to offer this for women."

The Parties

Jasmine is your partner in planning the bachelorette party. She takes care of inviting the guests for you and offers a number of party planning tips. On the day of the party, get ready to giggle with your girlfriends! Jasmine's educational and fun presentation will make you laugh and create a safe place to talk openly with your friends.

The parties include a presentation of the wide variety of high quality product and education. All guests can touch, taste, smell all of the lotions, lubes and oils, view and try on the sexy lingerie, and see how the bedroom products work. Jasmine eases into the presentation and tailors what she presents to the audience. She ensures everyone feels comfortable and has a great time.

"I typically don't care for at-home parties, but I loved this one!" said Jaime, a recent party attendee. "I learned so much and had even more fun than I thought I would!"

No need to plan any party games. If desired, Jasmine provides games throughout her presentation that add fun and keep everyone on their toes. A Slumber Party sets the mood for the rest of the evening. Jasmine times her presentation so that you have plenty of time to hit the town afterward.

"Our parties are a great way to ease into the evening. Have dinner with the girls before the party and then go out to celebrate afterward," says Jasmine.

After the tasteful presentation, you will be able to purchase and take the products home that night – Jasmine carries a full inventory! The checkout takes place in a private room; no one at the party will know what you ordered. Guests are also welcome to buy gifts for the bride. In addition, the bride (or party hostess) receives a special gift from Jasmine, 10% of party sales in free product, and 40% off everything else (with a $500 party).

For those too shy to order, products can be purchased directly online at www.SlumberPartiesByJasmineD.com or you can call Jasmine to place a confidential order at 715-933-1199. Due to the nature of the parties, it's important to know that they are strictly for ladies 18+ only.

The Opportunity

Slumber Parties also offers a fun and rewarding opportunity for anyone interested in distributing their products. Become a distributor and you will have no boss to answer to. The company offers free training, online chat support assistance, a national chat board, newsletters, a free convention, and much more.

"Slumber Parties has been such a blessing for me," says Jasmine. "It gives me nights away from the responsibilities at home and the ability to have an unlimited income."

Slumber Parties even offers health insurance and a retirement package. You can earn an average of $100 an hour while having a party! The average distributor who has one party per week earns $1,600 a month.

If you are interested in learning more about the opportunity and becoming a part of the fastest growing team in Wisconsin, Jasmine has everything you need to be up and running in no time. Visit Jasmine's website or give her a call for more information.

"I absolutely love what I do. It's fun, I've met wonderful people, and I feel like I'm making a real difference," says Jasmine. "I even had a woman tell me that I saved her marriage. I never would have imagined the impact this business would have on me, my family, and the people I meet."

Make your party a Slumber Party. The bride and her guests are sure to have a great time – and you may even find a new career!
