

THE METROPOLIS RESORT

A special moment shared with your wedding party... on go-carts.

An elegant reception hall... next door to a twister waterslide.

A memorable evening as newlyweds... in a Paris Apartment honeymoon suite.

Elegance with a side of adventure is what you will be served at The Metropolis Resort in Eau Claire. Part designer hotel and conference center, part fun center, and part waterpark, The Metropolis is your answer to a fun, one-of-a-kind wedding celebration. There's nothing quite like it... anywhere!

"The Metropolis is a hidden gem for weddings," says Karen Kraus, marketing and public relations direction at The Metropolis Resort. "The photography speaks for itself. A bride and groom playing mini golf or a wedding party in their laser tag gear. Just like our weddings, the photos are so unique and fun."

Your guests will know they are in a special celebration from the moment they arrive at the resort complex. The Metropolis Resort features beautifully decorated hotel rooms and suites, a variety of onsite dining options, a conference center, Chaos Water Park, and Action City entertainment center. You and your guests are sure to find every need onsite – and then some!

A Unique Dining Experience

Featuring large windows that overlook the waterpark, the Sky Box Banquet Room is a unique space to celebrate. It seats up to 300 guests and can be set up in a number of different ways. Wedding Coordinator Carmen Wheeler is there to guide you through each step of the planning process, plus she is there on the day of the wedding to make sure every detail is in place.

"From traditional to non-traditional, we make it special," says Wheeler. "The amenities and fun our resort provides makes planning a wedding easy."

During the planning phase, Wheeler sits down with you and their executive chef to plan the menu. From steak to seafood to carving stations, a variety of menu options are available, or a custom menu can be created to suit your tastes or complement your wedding theme. Typically, food is served family-style or buffet-style.

In addition to great food, the facility has a dance floor, portable bar service, and state-of-the-art AV equipment. For those planning a smaller reception, the room can be divided. Bachelor/bachelorette parties and gift openings can be held in one of their meeting rooms or in the party room at Action City next door.

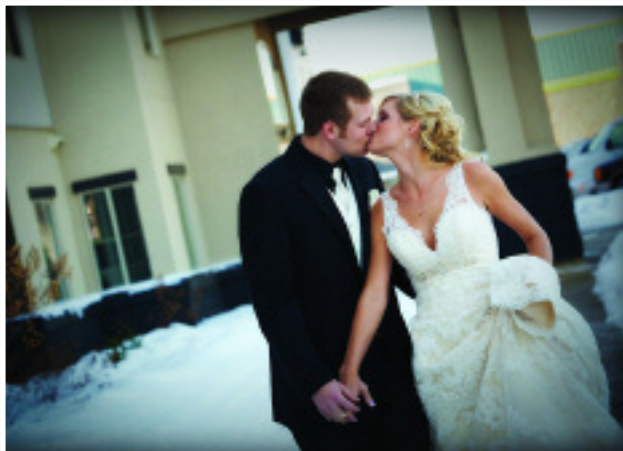

“Before you set the date, consider a having a Friday wedding,” suggests Wheeler. “You get to take advantage of more room availability and special pricing and promotions.”

A World of Unlimited Fun

The latest addition to the resort, Chaos Water Park is a comic book-themed water playground for kids – and adults! With a number of slides, activity pools, a lazy river, and more, the waterpark provides hours of family fun. Admission into the park is included with your hotel room. It’s the perfect place to play before the wedding.

Action City, the resort’s indoor and outdoor recreation center, is a great place for bachelor/bachelorette parties. It’s also an ideal way to spend downtime between wedding festivities, such as the time between the ceremony and the reception. Action City features 55,000 square feet of games, rides, sports, two go kart tracks (including the Midwest’s largest indoor track), climbing wall, mini golf, laser tag, and video games. Special activity packages can be put together for the wedding party and/or guests.

“For example, a couple may choose to purchase two trips around the go-cart track with their wedding party – which is also a great photo opp,” says Kraus.

The Future and Beyond

The fun all began in 2005 with Action City, followed by the hotel in 2008 and the waterpark in 2009. So, what’s next for the resort?

“We like to keep people guessing,” said Kraus.

“Plans are in place for future growth. We want to make sure that the resort remains fresh and exciting. We are committed to making sure that all guests have a good experience.”

With all of the amenities and fun that The Metropolis offers, you and your guests are guaranteed to experience a wedding unlike any other. Plus, it’s an ideal place to begin your adventure as a married couple.
